

Adam C. Negri

History of Medicine
Diehl Hall (511A)
University of Minnesota
Minneapolis, MN 55455

601 Park Street, #3
St. Paul, MN 55103
ph: 763-415-6410
negri012@umn.edu

Education

University of Minnesota, PhD Student 2019-present

Program in History of Medicine

Dissertation: Transhistorical Trauma: Research, Care, and Health Inequities of Traumatic Brain Injuries, 1928-2018

Advisor: Jennifer Gunn

Montana State University, M.A. 2019

Program in History

Thesis: Regarding Policy in Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy as a Transhistorical Disorder

Advisor: Michael Reidy

Montana State University, B.A. 2016

Program in Religious Studies

Montana State University, B.A. 2016

Program in Philosophy

Academic Appointments

Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Minnesota, 2019-present

Department of History of Science, Technology, and Medicine

Graduate Teaching Assistant, Montana State University, 2017-2019

Department of History and Philosophy

Publications

(Forthcoming) Negri, Adam and Lauren Wilson. "Future Systems of Xenotransplantation: Melding Historical and Bioethical Methodology." Cell Transplantation (January 2023).

Negri, Adam. "Bodies of Experience: Parallels and 'Lessons Learned' in HIV/AIDS and COVID-19 Oral History Interviews." Learnings from HIV-AIDS and Other Diseases Research Papers. Portal Research (Summer 2022).

Works-in-Progress

"Managing Mistrust and Misinformation in a Public Health Crisis: HIV/AIDS and COVID-19 Oral Histories from Minneapolis, Minnesota." An article using oral history primary source material to examine the historical themes of mistrust and misinformation during two public health crises in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Selected Presentations

“Ways of Seeing Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy.” Paper presented to the Ways of Seeing Conference, Montana State University, March 28, 2018.

“Regarding Policy in Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy as a Transhistoric Disorder.” Paper presented to History Colloquium, Montana State University, February 23, 2018.

“Brain Trauma Pre-1928: Understanding the History of ‘Punch-Drunk.’” Paper presented to WEST Network, Flathead Lake Biological Research Station, Bigfork, Montana, June 11, 2018.

(Cancelled due to COVID-19) “Regarding Policy in Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy as a Transhistoric Disorder.” Paper presented to American Association for the History of Medicine, Ann Arbor, Michigan, December 2020.

“Finance and Budget Process.” Presentation given to the Council of Graduate Students General Assembly in Director of Finance role at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN, October 2021.

“Brain Networks and Research Paradigms.” Fellowship presentation given at the University of Minnesota Institute for Advanced Study Human in the Data Symposium, February 2022.

“Bodies of Experience: Parallels and ‘Lessons Learned’ in HIV/AIDS and COVID-19 Oral History Interviews.” Paper presented to Manitoba-Ontario-Minnesota-Saskatchewan (MOMS) Medical History Conference at the University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, SK, October 2022.

Honors and Awards

Burlingame Annual Best Undergraduate Research Paper in Religious Studies, April 2015.

Outstanding Graduate Student Service Award, Department of History and Philosophy, Montana State University, April 2018.

Outstanding Graduate Student Service Award, Department of History and Philosophy, Montana State University, April 2019.

Burlingame Annual Best MA Thesis, Montana State University, April 2019.

Thank a Teacher Program, Center for Educational Innovation, University of Minnesota. Spring 2020 and Fall 2021.

Edwin T. Layton Teaching Award, Program in the History of Science, Technology, and Medicine, University of Minnesota, May 2021.

Fellowships and Grants

Thesis Travel Grant, Department of History and Philosophy, Montana State University. Summer 2018. $1,200.

Sara Wangenstein Fellowship in the History of Medicine, University of Minnesota. Spring 2021. $9,029.

Human in the Data MnDRIVE Fellowship Program, Institute for Advanced Study, University of Minnesota. Summer 2021. $7,000.

Service

Employment

Independent Contractor, Learnings from HIV/AIDS Research Papers, Minneapolis, Minnesota

Project Lead: Emil Angelica. Spring 2022-Fall 2022

History of Medicine Specialist, Covid-19 Healthcare Oral History Project, Minnesota. Project Lead: Barbara W. Sommer. Spring 2021-Spring 2022. Deposited as archival material at the Hennepin History Museum, the Tretter Collection at the University of Minnesota's Andersen Library, and the Ramsey County Historical Society.

Oral History Contractor, Minnesota Neurology Oral History Project, Department of Neurology, University of Minnesota. Project Lead: David Anderson. Fall 2020-present.

Department

Editor, History Graduate Student Association's Blog (High Altitude History), Montana State University, Spring 2018 – Fall 2019.

Member, Climate Committee, History of Science, Technology, and Medicine, University of Minnesota, Spring 2020-present.

University

Program Representative, Council of Graduate Students, University of Minnesota, Fall 2020-Fall 2021.

COGS Representative, RecWell Advisory Board, Fall 2020-Fall 2021.

Director of Finance, Council of Graduate Students, Summer 2021-present.

Managed $150,000 annual budget for registered 501(c)(3).

Senator, Medical School, University Senate, University of Minnesota, Spring 2021-present.

Committee Member, Campus Safety Committee, University of Minnesota, Spring 2021- present.

Co-Chair, CSC Membership Working Group

Community

Volunteer, Heart of the Valley Animal Shelter, Bozeman, MT, Spring 2015.

Volunteer, HAVEN Domestic Violence Shelter, Bozeman, MT, Summer 2018-Fall 2019.

Volunteer, Holy Trinity Lutheran Church Food Distribution, Summer-Fall 2020. Volunteer, Communities United Against Police Brutality, Fall 2021-Summer 2022.