

Inequality & Methods Workshop

Fall 2013 — Fridays — 12:15 to 1:30 — MPC Seminar Room — Open to Everyone — Snacks Will be Served

- 9.20 Michel Boudreaux (Health Policy & Management)
The Long Term Impact of Medicaid
- 9.27 Caroline Krafft (Applied Economics) and Safaa El-Kogali (World Bank)
Inequalities in Early Childhood Development in the Middle East and North Africa
- 10.4 Alain Vandormael (Sociology)
Predicting Drug Resistance in a Cohort of Patients Failing Antiretroviral Therapy: Rural KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa
- 10.11 Anne Kaduk (Sociology) [Co-Sponsored by the Life Course Center]
Flexible Work Practices over Time in an IT Organization: Evidence from the Work, Family & Health Network Study
—and—
Katie Genadek (MPC)
Career Consequences of Flexible Work Practices in a Changing Context: Evidence from the Work, Family & Health Network Study
- 10.25 Zack Almquist (Sociology & Statistics)
US Census Spatial and Demographic Data in R with Applications to Spatially Embedded Social Networks
- 11.1 Joe Svec (Sociology) and Liz Boyle (Sociology)
A Cross-National Comparison of Abortion and Inequality
- 11.8 Stefanie DeLuca (Johns Hopkins, Sociology) [Co-Sponsored by the Life Course Center]
Why Poor People Move: Residential Mobility, Selection and Segregation
- 11.15 Maria Glymour (University of California-San Francisco, Epidemiology & Biostatistics)
Inequalities in Stroke and Cerebrovascular Disease: Race, Place, and Lifelong Socioeconomic Status
- 11.22 jim saliba (Sociology)
Measuring Educational Equity
- 12.6 Rob Warren (Sociology)
Using Current Population Survey Data to Describe the Rate at which U.S. Students Repeat Grades
—and—
Sean Buuck (Sociology) and Rob Warren (Sociology)
Using Current Population Survey Data to Describe Who Gets a GED
- 12.13 Glibert Gonzales (Health Policy and Management), Miriam King (MPC), Ryan Moltz (Sociology), and Carrie Henning-Smith (Health Policy and Management)
Using the IHIS to do LGBT Health Research: Challenges and Findings
- 12.20 Liying Luo (Sociology) [Co-Sponsored by the Life Course Center]
Age, Period, and Cohort Trends in Americans' Vocabulary Knowledge
-

Please email Rob Warren (warre046@umn.edu) with questions or suggestions