POSITIONS

- 2016- Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology
Faculty Member, Minnesota Population Center
University of Minnesota, Twin Cities
- 2014-2016 Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Health and Society Scholar
Columbia University

EDUCATION

- 2014 Ph.D., Sociology, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Ph.D. Minor: Philosophy
Dissertation: "What Death Reveals About Life: Mortality Selection and Inequality"
Committee: Felix Elwert (Chair), James Montgomery, Jenna Nobles, Alberto Palloni, Jim Walker (Economics), Erik Wright
- 2010 M.S., Sociology, University of Wisconsin-Madison
M.S. paper: "A multi-stage selection explanation for puzzling new results in mortality deceleration"
- 2007 M.A., Philosophy, New York University
M.A. paper: "Can causation be reduced to statistical associations?"
- 2006 B.A., Sociology, New York University
Minors: Mathematics, History, Philosophy
Summa cum laude

HONORS, AWARDS, & FELLOWSHIPS

- 2020 Outstanding Article Award, American Sociological Association
Section on Mathematical Sociology
- 2020 Residential Fellowship (Fall 2020), Institute for Advanced Studies,
University of Minnesota
- 2019-2020 Fesler-Lampert Chair in Aging Studies, Center on Aging, University of Minnesota
- 2019 Poster Award, Population Association of America
- 2019 Single-Semester Leave (competitive application for Spring 2020),
University of Minnesota
- 2018 Cooperman Sociology Summer Interdisciplinary Award, University of Minnesota
- 2017 Poster Award, Population Association of America
- 2017 Poster Award, Population Association of America
- 2016 Poster Award, Population Association of America
- 2015 Kathryn DuPre Lumpkin Dissertation of the Year Award (for 2013-2014 academic year), Department of Sociology, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2013-2014 National Institute of Child Health and Human Development Trainee, Center for Demography of Health and Aging, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2013
(summer) Dissertation Fellowship, Institute for Research on Poverty,
University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2013 Genevieve Gorst Herfurth Award (for best graduate student paper in the social sciences), University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2013 Poster Award, Population Association of America
- 2012-2013 Dissertation Fellowship, Ford Foundation
- 2012-2013
(declined) Dissertation Fellowship, Institute for Research on Poverty,
University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2012 Clifford Clogg Award (for best graduate student paper), Methodology
Section, American Sociological Association

- 2010 Gunther Beyer Award (for best paper by author(s) under 35), European Association for Population Studies
- 2010 Poster Award, Population Association of America
- 2009 Poster Award (approx. top 5% of posters), Population Association of America
- 2009-2012 Graduate Research Fellowship, National Science Foundation
- 2007-2009 University Prize Fellowship, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2006-2007 Richard A. and Jeanette L. Hoffman Wisconsin Distinguished Graduate Fellowship, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2006 Gillin Award, Sociology Department, University of Wisconsin-Madison

GRANTS

- 2020 Sustainable Development Goals Rapid Response Grant, University of Minnesota. For “Characterizing Disparities in Covid-19 Deaths in Minnesota.” ($5,000)
- 2020 Seed Grant, College of Liberal Arts, University of Minnesota. For “The Effects of Clean Water on Infectious Mortality and Inequality in Milwaukee, 1910-1930” ($6,000)
- 2018-2023 Co-PI, “National Historical Geographic Information System (NHGIS),” National Science Foundation (NSF 1825768). PIs: Steven Manson, Catherine Fitch, Jonathan Schroeder, Elizabeth Wrigley-Field ($999,900)
- 2017-2018 Grant-in-Aid, University of Minnesota, Twin Cities. For “The Epidemiological Transition in United States Rural Areas” ($31,852)
- 2017 Seed Grant, College of Liberal Arts, University of Minnesota. For “Infectious Exposures, the Production of Population Heterogeneity, and the Future of Elderly Mortality” ($2,550)
- 2016 Funded Participant, Faculty Success Program, National Center for Faculty Development and Diversity (participation funded jointly by UMN’s CLA Dean & University VPAA; $3,250)
- 2016 Proposal Development Mentorship Award, Minnesota Population Center. For “Infectious Exposures, the Production of Population Heterogeneity, and the Future of Elderly Mortality” ($10,000)

- 2015 Small Grant, Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Health and Society Scholars, Columbia University. For “The Mathematics of Mortality Crossovers.” ($1,500)
- 2015 Funded Participant, Berkeley Workshop on Formal Demography
- 2014 Seed Grant, Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Health and Society Scholars, Columbia University. For “Digitizing the Historical Mortality Statistics,” Awarded to: James Feigenbaum, Chris Muller, Elizabeth Wrigley-Field, Jon Zelner. ($20,000)
- 2013 Travel Award, Institute for Research on Poverty, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2013 Travel Award, Sociology Department, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2013 Travel Award, Center for Demography and Ecology, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2013 Vilas Travel Award, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2013 Funded Participant, Keyfitz Centennial Symposium on Mathematical Demography, Mathematical Biosciences Institute and Institute for Population Research, Ohio State University
- 2013 Small Grant, Institute for Research on Poverty, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2012 Travel Award, Sociology Department, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2012 Funded Participant, Summer School on Socioeconomic Inequality, Institute for New Economic Thinking and Becker-Friedman Institute for Research in Economics, University of Chicago
- 2012 Vilas Travel Award, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2011 Funded Participant, Stanford Biodemography Workshop
- 2010 Funded Participant, Upper Midwest Population Workshop, University of Minnesota
- 2010 International Travel Award, National Science Foundation
